Dear John,

Hello my good friend. May this letter find you doing very well, in the best of health and spirits and in the comfort of God's graces and care upon your receipt. At the time of the writing of this letter I'm holding on as best I can.

At this time I'm unaware as to how things will turn out with my unfortunate situation. Therefore I want to send you a few lines to let you know that even if things don't turn out as we'd like them to I really appreciate all that you, Barbara, Al, Ward and everyone else have done to try to save my life and win me my freedom. I definitely won't feel as though any on you have let me down because you and everyone else have done a great deal more for me than any of the ineffective court appointed attorneys that have misrepresented me throughout this nightmare. You were tremendously better than all of the crooked attorneys. As I'm writing this letter, I'm surely not giving up hope of receiving a stay and winning my freedom. I just want you to know that I will NOT feel as though you let me down if things don't turn out for the very best. You're a great man and a great person, I hope you'll continue doing what you do to help innocent people prove their innocence and gain their freedom as you continue on in your journey through life.

Take very good care of yourself and keep your head and spirits up. I hope God will make it possible for things to turn out for the best so we can meet one another in person in the very immediate future. THANK YOU VERY MUCH for all your help. God Bless You and have a very pleasant day.

*Peace & Much Love
In the Struggle for Life & Freedom,
